
CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF THE SOUTHWEST

The Center for the Study of the Southwest would like to invite you to join our growing family of subscribers. We are happy to announce that we now produce two publications in Southwestern studies. Southwestern American Literature is a biannual scholarly journal that includes literary criticism, fiction, poetry, and book reviews concerning the Greater Southwest. Texas Books in Review is a quarterly that monitors the literary production of books from or about Texas, providing rich reviews about the latest and contemporary publications in diverse fields and genres. We hope that we can serve you by providing excellent creative art and scholarly work about the Southwest.

• I wish to subscribe to Southwestern American Literature.
__One year, two issues for the regular annual rate of $14

• I wish to subscribe to Texas Books in Review.
__One year, four issues for the regular annual rate of $14

• I wish to subscribe to both of your publications, Texas Books in Review and Southwestern American Literature.
__One year subscription to both publications $28
Subscribe by e-mail (mb13@txstate.edu) or fax (512-245-7462).

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Check enclosed: _____ (checks payable to SAL/TBR) Bill me: _____

Please send this subscription form to the following address:

SAL/TBR Subscriptions
Center for the Study of the Southwest
Brazos Hall
Texas State University–San Marcos
San Marcos, Texas 78666-4616